

GOVERNOR WILL BARE HIS LIFE IN LAST EFFORT TO SAVE HIMSELF

RULINGS PLEASE SULZER'S SIDE

Prosecution Sustains Double Reverse at Impeachment Trial.

GOVERNOR TO TAKE THE STAND

Will Tell His Story of Poverty and Alleged Persecution When the Prosecution Rests—Latter Holding Number of Important Witnesses For Rebuttal—Review of the Day's Testimony at Albany.

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 30.—The testimony against William Sulzer is likely to be finished by evening or tomorrow morning at the latest. By Wednesday afternoon the governor may be on the stand beginning the long story of poverty and persecution which he believes will save him.

Some of the best witnesses for the prosecution are being held for rebuttal. It is suspected that Governor Sulzer's narrative in his own defense will cover so much ground that a wide latitude of testimony will be permitted in reply.

The governor's lawyers were elated by rulings of Judge Cullen which blocked the impeachment managers at two important points. One of them was that nobody except John Boyd Gray of Fuller & Gray, could be allowed to testify as to whether or not "account 500," which Frederick L. Colwell carried with that firm, was really the account of William Sulzer. Two witnesses of whom this question was asked were checked by the defense, and the objection was sustained by Judge Cullen when they said they only knew what Gray had told them. The impeachment managers were hit by this ruling, because their subpoena servers have been unable to find Mr. Gray.

The other ruling, which pleased the defense and went hard with the prosecution, was that no assemblymen except Thaddeus C. Sweet of Oswego county and Spencer G. Prime of Essex county could testify to the governor's corrupt use of the veto power in bargaining for votes for his direct primary bill, as alleged in impeachment article No. 7.

The prosecution's one big bit of new evidence supplied from among the 13 witnesses heard was that of George W. Grossman of Grossman & Van Sietcken, New York coffee importers, who sent $1,500 in cash Mr. Sulzer on Oct. 16 last.

WOMAN ON TRIAL

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 30.—Preliminaries in the trial of Mrs. Callotta Thompson Brown, woman broker, and her husband, Henry A. Brown, jointly indicted by the grand jury on the charge of embezzling $21,171 from Fred Schroth, were begun before Common Pleas Judge Cushing Schroth, in his statement to the grand jury, said that he turned over to the Browns securities to sell for him and that they appropriated the proceeds of the sale.

Fremont, O., Sept. 30.—Walter Martin, 28, a farmer, was fatally injured when struck by a Lake Shore electric car.

EXPERTS TO TESTIFY

Osborne and Kinsley to Pass On Signatures On Sulzer Checks.

Testimony of handwriting experts will be an important part in the impeachment trial of William Sulzer. This is needed by the impeachment managers to identify the signatures on various checks which form the basis of some of the charges. Alfred S. Osborne (top) and William Kinsley (bottom) planned to tell the assembly what they thought of the various indorsements on campaign checks.

Negotiations to Settle Differences With Colombia Now In Progress.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Negotiations with Colombia for the settlement of the differences between that country and the United States arising out of the revolution of 1903, by which Panama became independent, are now in progress, and the state department is most hopeful of the outcome. While the basis of the negotiations has not been disclosed, it is believed that the tendency is toward an agreement of arbitration of at least a portion of Colombia's claims against the United States for the loss of Panama. Arbitration was refused by Secretary Knox last winter because he held that the sovereignty of the republic of Panama was not a matter which could be decided by arbitration.

Latest Picture of Henry Morgenthau, New Ambassador to Turkey, Who Figures in Governor Sulzer's Trial

This is the latest snapshot of Henry Morgenthau, the new American ambassador to Turkey, taken while he was in Albany, N. Y., as a witness in the impeachment trial of Governor William Sulzer. The newly appointed diplomat, who was active in the Wilson campaign, will start for Constantinople soon. He testified that he gave Sulzer a $1,000 check for campaign purposes. Sulzer's enemies claim at the trial that he used it for private purposes.

TIMOTHY WOODRUFF VICTIM OF PARALYSIS

Suffers Stroke While Delivering Speech In New York.

New York, Sept. 30.—Timothy L. Woodruff, three times lieutenant governor of this state, suffered a stroke of paralysis while he was delivering a speech at Cooper Union notifying John Purroy Mitchell of his nomination for mayor.

Mr. Woodruff was able to put a concluding paragraph or two on his speech before his friends saw that he was on the point of collapse. While the audience was applauding what they supposed to be the end of his address, five or six men on the platform ran up to Mr. Woodruff and helped him off the stage.

Hasty examination by physicians showed that his left side was partially paralyzed. He did not lose consciousness. He went home in his automobile with Mrs. Woodruff to Carlton House and his family physicians were hurriedly summoned.

HARDIN DRY

Kenton, O., Sept. 30.—Hardin county temperance people are rejoicing over their victory, the county going dry by 196 votes. Kenton gave a majority of nearly 700. Five years ago the county went dry by 2,100 majority.

Bryan to Summon Another American Official to Washington.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Alexander Benson, second secretary of the American embassy at Rome, will be summoned to Washington by Secretary Bryan as a result of the thorough investigation of conditions in the embassy which the state department is making following the charges preferred against Post Wheeler, the first secretary of the embassy. It is also probable that other members of the embassy staff will be ordered to Washington to explain what part, if any, they have had in the petty scandal and friction that have existed there for nearly a year.

DRYS WIN DECISIVE VICTORY IN CLERMONT

TO REMAIN DRY

Clermont County, Ohio, Holds Local Option Election.

Batavia, O., Sept. 30.—Clermont county voted to remain saloonless, when an election under the Rowe county local option law gave the drys a majority of 1,437. The majority was 465 greater than that given in the previous election, five years ago. Both wets and drys were well organized and a heavy vote was polled. The dry organization was in charge of John Fuhr, a German, who speaks little of English. All but two precincts in the county contributed to the dry majority.

Five-Power Group's Collapse Opens Way to Americans.

SCRAMBLE IN CHINA PREDICTED

Foreign Combination Prevented United States Bankers From Getting a Share of the Vast Amount of New Business and Industrial Financing Being Opened Up in the Celestial Republic.

Washington, Sept. 30.—That the dissolution of the five-power loan group, so far as industrial loans to China are concerned, will precipitate a general scramble in China, was the opinion expressed here following the announcement in London of the breaking up of this financial relationship.

While the United States has been far removed from active interest in Chinese finances since President Wilson's refusal to ask the American bankers to continue in the group, it is believed that the action taken by the five powers will open the way to the advantage of American financial and commercial interests.

The five powers enjoyed practically a monopoly on all loans of whatever character which China might desire, and this prevented any American bankers from getting a share of the vast amount of new business and industrial financing being opened up in China.

According to advices received in Washington in the last few weeks, American interests have been suffering greatly since the withdrawal of the United States from the international loan group. American bankers made no attempt to do business with the government of China after the president's refusal to support the six-power loan project, and the indirect result has been that Europeans and the Japanese have obtained the preponderance in most of the railway and industrial projects under consideration since the loan contract was signed.

NOW IN THE COURTS

Validity of the Dry Referendum Attacked in a Suit.

Columbus, O., Sept. 30.—Suit to determine the legality of the proposed referendum of the proposed law which seeks to prevent the shipment of wet goods into dry territory was filed with the Franklin county courts by John Pfeifer and the Pfeifer Show Print company, as taxpayers, against Secretary of State Graves. Legal objection to the referendum is based largely on the ground that the measure proposed for submission to the people is neither the original measure, as initiated to the assembly, nor the same measure "amended by either house," as provided in the constitution.

CHIEF'S NAME TO BE WRITTEN ON THE TARIFF BILL THIS WEEK

TARIFF MEASURE UP TO SENATE

House Adopts Bill As Reported From Conference.

WILSON TO SIGN IT THIS WEEK

Framers of the New Act Claim They Have Worked From the Beginning On a Distinct Plan to Reduce High Cost of Living—Rates Pared On Practically All Necessaries of Life. What Party Leaders Say.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Before the end of the week President Wilson will have signed the second low tariff measure that has been passed in more than 65 years. The bill, voted favorably upon in the house today, will go to the senate tomorrow, and after a brief debate will be adopted in its present form.

The average ad valorem rate of the present bill is very much lower than that of the Wilson-Gorman act. The average rate of the latter was 39.45 per cent, while the estimated rate of the present bill ranges from 27 to 29 per cent. The average for the present Payne-Aldrich law is 40.12 per cent.

Mr. Wilson will sign the new tariff bill under most favorable conditions. At the close of the long fight he finds himself personally triumphant and at the same time in the closest accord with the party leaders. The bill has come through with a loss of but two Democratic votes, and these were cast chiefly on account of local reasons.

The bill about to become a law is variously described. Regular Republicans denounce it as a free trade measure and profess to fear that it will depress the industries of the country. Progressive Republicans find many good features in the bill, while Chairman Simmons and Leader Underwood describe the measure as a tariff for revenue and not a free trade bill. Senator LaFollette, who moves in a sphere of his own in regard to tariff matters, holds that the bill is "mildly protective."

NOTABLE MEETING DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION WITH STATE REGENT ATTENDING

Local Chapter of the D. A. R. Entertains Mrs. Kent Hamilton, State Regent of Ohio and Officers of Wilmington and Xenia Chapters—Hospitable Hegler Home Thrown Open for the Meeting—Interesting Address Delivered by Mrs. Hamilton.

Monday afternoon marked an epoch in the history of the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. For the first time the chapter was honored with the presence of a state officer, the state regent, Mrs. Kent Hamilton, of Toledo. Also as specially invited guests were the officers of the Xenia and Wilmington chapters. From the Xenia chapter, Mrs. McGranger, regent; Mrs. Schell, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Meredith, Mrs. Mesinger, Mrs. Davidson; from the Wilmington chapter, Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Nichols, Mrs. Calvin, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. McMillan.

The occasion was the opening meeting of the year and the Hegler home, situated in its spaciousness of Colonial days, from which the Daughters trace their ancestry, was hospitably placed at the disposal of the guests.

The afternoon's hostesses included Mrs. Maria Hegler and daughter, Miss Marie, Miss Florence Ogle, regent, Mesdames Frank L. Stutson, H. L. Hadley, Joseph H. Harper, Will Sprenger, Howard McLean.

Golden rods, the American flower, and huge flags, effectively draped, were used throughout the rooms and it was altogether an afternoon to bring back the patriotism of revolutionary days.

Miss Ogle, the regent, introduced the state regent, Mrs. Hamilton, who made an intensely interesting address on "The Different Interests for Which the D. A. R. are Working."

In her address Mrs. Hamilton proved conclusively that the Daughters are alive wires in the active work of today. Their efforts broaden into wide fields.

One of the greatest activities of the D. A. R., especially in Cleveland, Cincinnati and factory towns, has been among emigrants. The enormous mass of foreigners coming to this country throws great responsibility upon the Daughters, whose loyalty impels them to look to the future rather than the past. In Cleveland, a "Girl Home-makers' Society" has been organized under the Daughters and the art of homemaking and American ways of living taught to these ignorant girls of alien parents. The society is in the nature of settlement work and Cleveland offers one of the largest fields.

Another branch is "Welfare Work" among women and children, especially in factory districts, special attention given to raising the age limit and curtailing working hours of women.

The work of patriotic instruction among the shut-in people of the Tennessee and Carolina mountains is occupying many chapters. A number of them supporting scholarships. Other chapters take hold of Public Libraries and give special attention to the equipment of the department of American history.

In the more direct trend of genealogical and historical lines, Mrs. Hamilton spoke of the preservation of old trails and historic sites, the marking of graves of Revolutionary soldiers, the work among the children and sons of the Republic, teaching ideals of government, and the National society, which presents a gold spoon to every "Real Daughter" of the revolution. The Real Daughters also receive government pensions.

It is thought that Mrs. Violet Hatch, of near Xenia, now 192 years old, is a Real Daughter. There is also one in Toledo. Mrs. Hatch receives a government pension. On her 100th birthday the school children bought her a big bunch of violets, 100 of them, and hanging to each stem a penny.

Mrs. Hamilton delighted the daughters with her gracious personality and innate reserve force. She is certainly a regent of whom the chapters can be justly proud. Mrs. Hamilton's six bars on her pin show more than the allotted share of Revolutionary ancestors.

The Xenia chapter has been interested in marking historic spots and have placed a marker where Simon Kenton ran the gauntlet at the Indian settlement of "Old Chillicothe," on the Xenia and Springfield pike.

The Wilmington chapter has kept the Public Library of that city from going under.

Mrs. H. L. Stitt and Miss Edith Gardner added much to the pleasure of the afternoon in piano renditions and songs. Miss Gardner sang three gems of Mrs. Stitt's own composition, "A Red, Red Rose," "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," and a "Lullaby," and sang them exquisitely. Mrs. Stitt accompanied the singer and closed the program with a stirring melody of national airs.

A delightful social hour followed, during which the hostesses served a delicious collation and the members of the local chapters visited with their guests.

There was a large attendance of Daughters, but no visitors, except from out of town.

OWNS A GENUINE THREE-LEGGED CHICKEN

Jimmie Jackson, colored, son of Tut Jackson, is the owner of a genuine three-legged chicken, which he has been proudly exhibiting to local citizens for several days.

The chicken is apparently as hearty as his two-legged brothers and sisters, but possesses a third leg which is attached to the side near one of the other legs, and apparently grows from the skin, and is not attached to a bone. The third leg has two useless claws, and the leg itself is not used by the chicken.

Jimmie was somewhat disappointed Saturday when he exhibited the fowl to members of the Sells-Floto circus and could not sell it.

WILSON TAKES HAND IN TARIFF FIGHT FOR NEW JERSEY GOVERNOR

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 30.—Interest centers in the New Jersey gubernatorial race because of President Wilson's active support of the Democratic candidate, James F. Fielder, who is filling out President Wilson's unexpired term as governor, has just won the Democratic nomination in the primaries, the first time the people of the state have thus directly nominated their candidates for the highest office. Former Governor Edward C. Stokes is the Republican candidate, and Everett Colby, one of the original men of the country to lead the revolt against the regulars, thus resulting in the Progressive party, is the Progressive candidate. It appears to be a walkover for Fielder because of the split Republican-Progressive vote.

DEAD AIR IN THE LUNGS.

When You Yawn You Expel It, So Don't Be Afraid to Yawn.

With ordinary breathing the lungs are not completely filled with air, nor are they entirely emptied every time you exhale during natural respiration. This leaves a quantity of dead air in the lungs, generally away down in the lower lobes. This is called "residual" air, and after it stays there awhile and becomes foul nature casts about for some means to make you get rid of it. The yawn is the thing, so nature makes you yawn. You open your mouth to its fullest extent, throw back your head, strain with the back muscles of the jaw, and you can then feel your lungs move as they force out all the foul air and take in fresh. In this manner are the lungs actually ventilated.

Yawning also ventilates the air passages in the mouth, throat and upper portion of the chest leading to the lungs. And again yawning is really an aid to bearing.

The cracking sound which you so often hear when giving an extra big yawn is due to the stretching and opening of the eustachian tubes. These tubes communicate between the ears and the back of the throat. If they are congested, which happens when you have a bad cold in the head, people complain of deafness.

If you feel inclined to yawn then do so. It is nature's way of cleaning out your lungs and air passages.—New York American.

The story is told that when the new proprietor of the London Times first went over the building in Printing House square he saw a door covered with cobwebs which wouldn't open. After he had waited a long time an aged caretaker was found burdened with enormous keys, one of which fitted the rusty lock, and after great straining turned it. Inside were dust and ashes and cobwebs and a skeleton! It was leaning over a table with a pen in its bone fingers. "What on earth is this?" they asked. "Oh, I remember hearing that in my great-grandfather's days they lost one of their leader writers," said the old key bearer. "He must have got locked in!"—London Sketch.

BOYS ELECT NEW CITY OFFICIALS

Exciting Contest Closes With Candidates for Office in Boys' City Running Neck and Neck—Robert Johnson Elected "Mayor"—Mass Meeting Tonight.

Saturday was red letter day in the history of the boys of the young Men's Christian Association. The boys who were candidates for the various offices in the boys' city recently inaugurated, were busy all week talking politics and soliciting votes. A number of mass meetings to enthrone the voters were held and excitement in the contest was at fever heat when the polls closed at 8:30 Saturday.

The "Federalists" have been sweeping everything in their path, and it was demonstrated in the primaries that their work was not done for aught, when they polled 41 more votes than the "Impartialists." The contest for mayor was a close one, and Robert Johnson, candidate on the "Impartialist" ticket, was elected by a majority of two. Paul Craig the "Federalist" candidate would probably have been elected if it had not been that some of the party "stand-patters" could not get to the polls to vote.

The results of the election are as follows: Mayor—Robert Johnson, 40; Paul Craig, 38. President of Council—Paul Streeby, 39; Edwards Hopkins, 39. Clerk of Council—Richard Willis, 33; Homer Hodson, 4. City Auditor—Robt. Merriweather, 36; Carl Beck, 42. City Clerk—Frank Edwards, 35; Edwin Jones, 43. City Treasurer—James Cook, 37; Edwin Bailey, 40. City Solicitor—Harold Hays, 41; William Evans, 39. For Council—Chester Reeves, 36; Walter Campbell, 36; Emmitt Hays, 36; Robert Nevins, 35; Robert Rearden, 39; Willis Willis, 35; Kenneth Kerr, 40; William Anderson, 37; Walter Fultz, 37; Jess Moots, 35. Federalists: Wilbur Adams, 42; Carl Lloyd, 40; Milton Wetzel, 43; Sherman Brownell, 43; Donald Ross, 47; Russell McKee, 40; Arthur Lewis, 38; George O'Brian, 40; Herbert Davenport, 39; Roland Slagle, 41.

The Impartialists only succeeded in electing three men on their ticket. The Council will be made up of all Federalists except one.

Tonight there will be a big mass meeting in the gymnasium at the Y. M. C. A., when the new mayor and the officers will be sworn in office. There will be speeches by some prominent "men", including the new mayor, and a letter from Governor Cox, who expressed himself last week when told of the movement saying: "It is a good thing. I wish that all our boys throughout Ohio might be interested in such a work as this. It will give them much valuable training in politics, that will fit them for real service, and clean service, in a few years to come."

The meeting is called for 7:30 and all parents and those who are interested in the boys are invited. After the meeting the Council and all city officials will meet with the new mayor in the Council Chamber on the second floor of the Y. M. C. A.

DUSKY PROWLER ENTERS RESIDENCE

About 11 o'clock Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kearney, of Columbus avenue were aroused by some one in the house, and discovered a large colored man prowling about the rooms in search of valuables.

When the man found that he was discovered he quickly fled from the premises before Mr. Kearney could reach a loaded revolver which was in another room from that in which he was sleeping.

When the police were summoned Mr. Kearney was able to give a fair description of the prowler, and later Leonard Hickman was arrested on suspicion, but proved an alibi.

The police are still working on the case, with hopes of landing the right man.

JURY IS DRAWN UNDER PROTEST

Unusual Tangle Occurs Monday Afternoon When Jury is Drawn to Try Case in Justice Craig's Court—Two Conflicting Sections of the Statutes Said to Be Cause for Complaint.

The names of 20 jurymen were drawn from the jury wheel Monday afternoon by the new jury commission, and a jury to try the case of Ohio against Sherman Dixon for non-support, will be selected from the list of those drawn.

The case in question will be tried before Judge Craig, and when the names were drawn Attorneys Lee Rankin and Pope Gregg were present. Rankin protesting against the method of drawing the jury and stating that the men thus drawn would probably be challenged.

The reason for the protest is said to be the result of two conflicting sections of the statutes, one section providing that the clerk of courts shall draw the jurors, and the other holding that the jury commission shall draw the names from the wheel. Attorney Rankin represents the defendant.

The names drawn from the jury wheel under protest are:

Walter Robinson, Jefferson township; Ralph Penn, 4th ward; D. O. Duncan, Perry; Willis Boyer, Wayne; F. L. Parrett, Paint; A. W. Plyley, 3rd ward; J. W. Patterson, Union; Percy Kennell, Union; Frank Dorn, Madison; Frank Myers, Wayne; H. B. Maynard, 4th ward; A. M. Anderson, 2nd ward; H. E. Edwards, 1st ward; W. R. WILL HAVE FLAGMAN AT EVERY CROSSING

An innovation in local railroad circles is scheduled for tomorrow when a fast train will be run over the local branch of the Pennsylvania railroad and a flagman has been ordered to guard every street crossing and every highway crossing along the line.

The demand for crossing-guards has been such that nearly every available man, including bridge carpenters and section men, will be stationed at some crossing.

When the train will pass through this city, and the nature of the train has not been learned.

FRANK M. FULLERTON

PUGILIST BY NIGHT; A STUDENT BY DAY

Young McGann Fighting Way Through Law School.

Chicago.—George Howard Lovequest, formerly of Chicago, now of Racine, Wis., is literally fighting his way through the law school of the University of Wisconsin. He fights at 133, Marquis of Queensberry, when he is not wrestling with Blackstone. He is known in the ring as "Young McGann," and is the only man known here who has adopted pugilism as a means of paying his expenses in school.

Lovequest was born on the south side in Chicago, where they develop "scrappers." In 1910 he entered Wisconsin as a law student and will be graduated next year. When he entered he cast about for a means of paying expenses. His friend Peter McGann suggested boxing. He approved of it, and his first professional bout was with a man named Britt, at Oregon, Wis. McGann stopped him in the first round. This brought him to the attention of promoters, and since then he has had no trouble in getting matches whenever he needed money. He ranks high as a student and says that as soon as he is through school he also will be through with the ring.

Guilford, Mo.—At Sunnyside farm, near here, is the largest hog in Missouri. It is of the Poland China breed and weighs 700 pounds and is seven feet five inches long and three feet four inches high. The smallest part of its leg is eleven inches in circumference.

The hog, which answers to the name of "A Wonder's Equal," is gentle. His friend is a tiny dog, which visits the lot every day, where he leaps upon the back of the hog and rides around the lot.

TELEPHONES—Home No. 137. Bell, Main No. 170.

They're Off!

Saturday last marked the opening of the 1913 football season. In the East and in the West teams were scheduled for the first grapple and the gridiron and the pigskin, after months of forgotten glory, once more walked out into the spotlight.

Baseball, the great American game, which, all summer, no matter how blistering the day, has packed bleachers and reigned unquestioned as the people's triumphant sport, passes out with the falling leaves, and into the arena stalks the great college game, football.

The crimson squad of Harvard goes out to meet the blue of Yale, while Princeton flaunts the orange and black in the face of both; Pennsylvania, full of hope, launches a new set of coaches and a new coaching system which is expected to bring back former glory; Michigan will again tackle the rejuvenated O. S. U. team and Case and Reserve, Miami and the O. W. U., Wooster, Oberlin, Buchtel, Athens and other colleges of our own state are strengthening their clevers and testing timber for the fray.

And as the football fever pulses in the veins of the crack grid teams, so it races, if not quite so madly, in the warriors of the High school grid irons.

Without the incentive of the tremendous crowds, the waving pennants, and the vibrating enthusiasm of the college game, the High school warrior of the buckskin goes to the line-up with the same spirit as the college athlete. His is the desire to win, to be a live factor in the game, to lead on to glory.

On last Saturday and on future Saturdays from now until Thanksgiving sees the wind-up of the season, there will be fullbacks, quarterbacks and tackles making good on the big college teams who developed football strategy on the High school teams.

Washington C. H. has contributed liberally to the strong players of Ohio college teams and seldom does the reported games of each week fail to mention some of Washington's former football stars.

Rough, the game always has been, although far less rough now than at any previous time in its history, and by many censured and condemned, but it is the great college game for all that.

Take a backward look and see whether the boys you remember as leading players in local football games have made good. Run over the list and you will be forced to admit that those players, the pride of the eleven, have shown the same grit, the same push, the same ability to tackle in the bigger fight of life.

It's a game of strategy; it's a game of nerve and endurance. Many a man can look back and thank his football coach for the training which stood him in good stead in after life.

The old football, the game of rough usage and often dangerous practice, had in it much to be condemned. The new football, with roughness so largely eliminated and dangerous massed plays forbidden, has in it much to be approved.

Washington C. H. as a whole has always been singularly lacking in football enthusiasm. Go out and see a game on the local gridiron; enter into its spirit and root like a good fellow.

A big, enthusiastic crowd would go far towards spurring W. C. H. to victory in the fall games.

Poetry For Today

TO AUTUMN.

Season of mists and mellow fruitfulness!
Close bosom-friend of the maturing sun;
Conspiring with him how to load and bless
With fruit the vines that round the thatch-eaves run;
To bend with apples the moss'd cottage-trees,
And fill all fruit with ripeness to the core;
To swell the gourd, the plump the hazel shells
With a sweet kernel; to set budding more,
And still more, later flowers for the bees,
Until they think warm days will never cease,
For Summer has o'er-brimm'd their clammy cells.

Who hath not seen thee oft amid thy store?
Sometimes whoever seeks abroad may find
Thee sitting careless on a granary floor,
Thy hair soft-lifted by the winnowing wind;
Or on a half-reap'd furrow sound asleep,
Drows'd with the fume of poppies while they hook
Spare the next swath and all its twined flowers;
And sometimes like a gleaner thou dost keep
Steady thy laden head across a brook;
Or by a cider press with patient look
Thou watchest the last oozings hours by hours.

—John Keats.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

Opening of New York University's 82nd year was marked by an enrollment of more than 6000. This represents a substantial increase in all the colleges. An enrollment of over 10,000 in Columbia and large increases in all other colleges around New York indicate high education is appreciated.

That all goods intended for exhibition at the Panama-Pacific World's fair be allowed to pass through the Panama canal free will be recommended by President Wilson in his annual message to Congress. This step has been approved by Secretary Bryan and the cabinet.

San Francisco's new civic center is subject for acclaim says an exchange. Of the buildings planned, 4 are already assured, the city hall, the auditorium, the library and the opera house. The sum of $3,500,000 has been set aside for the city hall and the directors of the Panama fair have donated $1,000,000 for the auditorium because it will be needed for conventions during the exposition. The library will be built with funds already provided for by the city and added to by Mr. Carnegie, totaling $1,250,000; the opera house is the gift of music lovers, something like $800,000 having been raised by the sale of boxes and seats. The state has given $1,000,000 for new law courts and similar uses. The city hall is building, occupies 2 city blocks and is constructed of light gray limestone. An art museum is proposed besides the structures here enumerated.

Henry Ford, the automobile manufacturer, walked up to the capitol in the city auditor's office in Detroit and bought $1,000,000 worth of Detroit 4 per cent 30-year school bonds.

With the object of luring customers into his shop, a perfumery merchant of New Orleans has placed an electric fan in his doorway to carry out into the street the enticing odors of his shop. An attendant with an atomizer sprays the fan with various perfumes.

The suggestion to establish a university on European lines in central China is arousing much interest in Great Britain, where efforts are being made to induce the government to aid the enterprise by remitting the sum of $1,800,000 from the Boxer indemnity. The amount of the indemnity claimed by England was $25,000,000 but only $800,000 has been paid.

To create a better understanding on the part of the public in what the railroads are doing to make safer conditions of travel and to safeguard employees through the prevention of accidents, Mrs. E. H. Harriman has offered a gold medal annually to be awarded by the American Museum of Safety. The gold medal will be awarded to the railroad itself, a similar one in silver to the member of the operating department of that road who has done the most to bring the condition about, and another similar one in bronze to the employee of the winning road who was most conspicuous in the promotion of safety by suggestions or otherwise.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Find Dead Man in Vacant House.

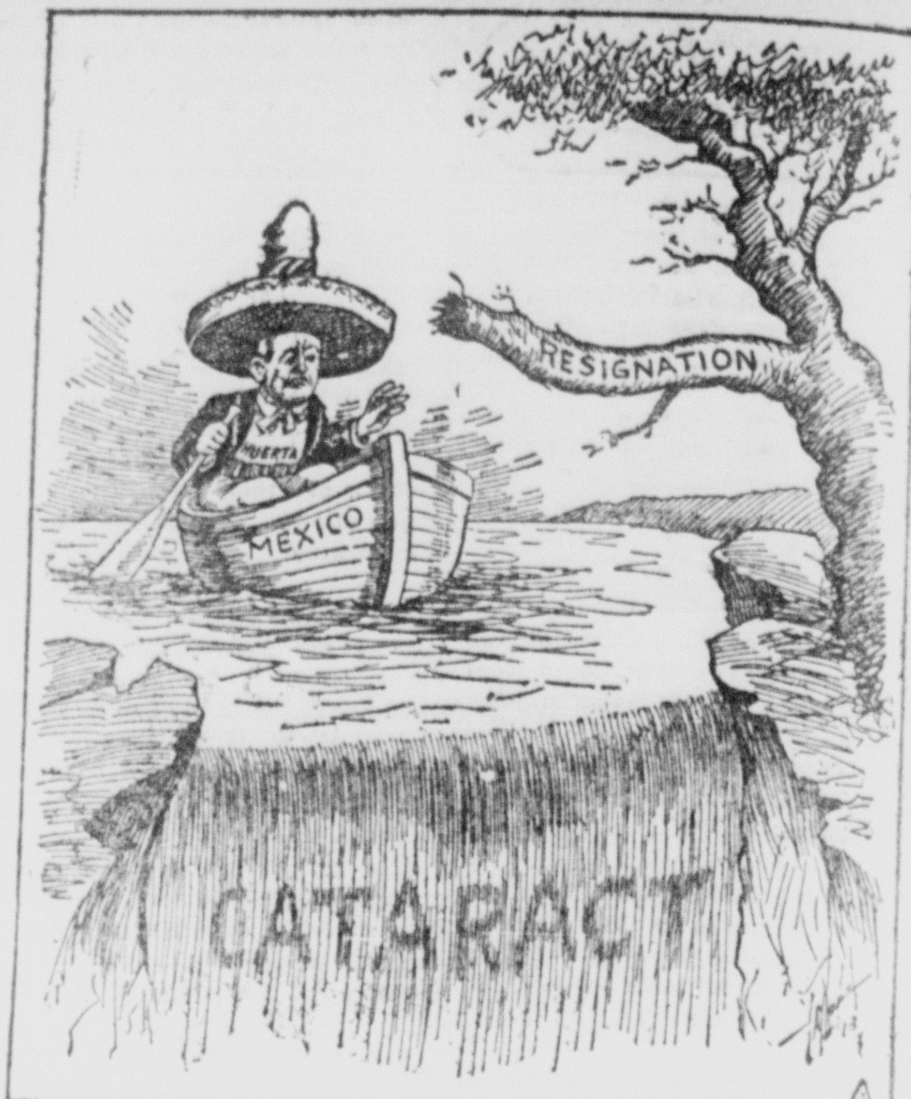

Akron, O., Sept. 29.—Prospective home-seekers entered a vacant house to find a dead man sitting up in one corner staring at them. The body was that of an unidentified man of about 65. Police are inclined to believe the body to be that of Harry Freeze, who disappeared about two months ago, eight weeks after his marriage. Mrs. Freeze refuses to visit the morgue.

Sustained Losses in Flood.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 30.—Losses sustained during the floods, of last spring is the cause given by the Royer Wheel company of this city, in asking for a receivership. Judge Warner appointed John W. Heron, Jr., the president of the company, and Philip Hinkle as receivers, and the business will be continued under their management.

Woman and Grandchild Asphyxiated. Toledo, O., Sept. 30.—Mrs. Emily Van Pelt, 74, and her granddaughter, Mildred Boxendale, 11, were asphyxiated in their home here. The aged woman and little girl had gone to sleep in the sitting room of their home. Burnt fumes from a gas heater in the kitchen filled the room and the sleepers were soon overcome.

The following named gentlemen were appointed a committee to attend the railroad meeting at Jamestown: A. M. Stimson, John Merchant, F. L. Nitterhouse, John Persinger, A. Hamilton, Ethan Allen, Allen Hepler and James Straley. This committee together with large delegations from Xenia, and Jamestown proceeded to Dayton to meet the capitalists who propose to build the road. These men advised the committees that Hillsboro would be the town that would get the railroad as it had been promised that town, but if sufficient inducements were offered the Jamestown-Washington route to the coal fields might be considered.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutionally remedying the cause. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when this tube is destroyed forever, since cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. What Is Wall Street Going Crazy About?

By JAMES J. HILL, Railroad Builder and Organizer

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH WALL STREET ANYWAY? ARE THEY GOING CRAZY THERE? EVERY ONE IS AS BLUE AS INDIGO, AND HALF THE PEOPLE DO NOT KNOW WHAT THEY ARE BLUE ABOUT. ALL THAT PEOPLE HAVE TO DO IN TIMES LIKE THESE IS KEEP A CLEAR HEAD AND AVOID GETTING RATTLED; THEN EVERYTHING WILL COME OUT ALL RIGHT.

Take it from me that the man who sells the United States "short" is going to SUFFER FOR IT LIKE THE MISCHIEF. He will take his medicine, and it will not be sweet, either. Yes, I know money is hard to get. I alluded some time ago to the difficulty the railroads were experiencing in obtaining loans at a time when time money rates were apparently easy. Selling short term note issues is apt to occasion inconvenience when the notes happen to mature in a disagreeable money market.

The money market is a good deal of a problem, but it will work out all right. Such complications as we have had of late are troublesome, but they are INSIGNIFICANT COMPARED WITH THE OFFSETTING FACTOR OF GOOD CROPS AND THE WEALTH THAT WILL RESULT FROM ANOTHER BOUNTIFUL HARVEST. Why, those nervous fellows in Wall street who get worked up because money rates are going up or because the stock market is going down ought to realize that the United States will derive TEN BILLION DOLLARS NEW WEALTH OUT OF THE GROUND THIS YEAR or a sum which exceeds the world's gold production for ten years.

PRESIDENT DENIES CONCLUSION REACHED

IN IMMIGRATION BILL

Wilson Sounded as to His Attitude Toward Educational Test.
Washington, Sept. 30.—Representative Sabbath of Chicago inquired of the president if he had committed himself in favor of the Burnett-Dill immigration bill. At the last session of congress President Taft vetoed this measure because it provided for an educational test for immigrants before they could be admitted into the United States. Mr. Sabbath was very active in the fight against the measure and upheld Mr. Taft's hands in the veto. The president denied that he had reached any conclusion on the subject of the educational test.

Law worked from the beginning on a distinct plan to reduce the high cost of living. They reduced duties on practically all of the articles that enter into the necessities of life, on the products of the farm as well as upon manufactured products.

The most important features of the new bill are those which led to the greatest struggle in both the senate and house Democratic caucuses. They related to the free listing of wool and of sugar. But for the strong insistence of President Wilson, it is likely that the senate would have restored a revenue duty to both wool and sugar. Raw wool will go on the free list Dec. 1 and sugar will be free after May 1, 1916.

The Democrats put cements and other building material, including lumber and shingles, upon the free list. Pig iron and ferrous manganese, billets and ingots for railway wheels, were put on the free list. Automobiles will pay about 30 per cent, which was a reduction of one-third from the house rate. Cattle, sheep and all domestic animals suitable as use for food and wheat flour and eggs were put on the free list. This was to conform with the tariff policy of reducing the cost of living.

The authors of the bill expect to raise an amount of revenue for the first year of $16,000,000 in excess of expenditures, and that afterward the surplus will be $18,000,000 or over.

Here's a Second Roosevelt In Action on Stump; Congressman Gardner Wants to Be Governor.

Photos by American Press Association.

Congressman Augustus P. Gardner, who was recently nominated for governor in the Massachusetts state primaries by the Republicans, is picturesquely Rooseveltian in action on the stump. Gardner made a strenuous campaign before the primaries, and these pictures caught him in various attitudes during the delivery of his speeches. He defeated his opponent, Everett C. Benton, by about 6,300 majority in a total Republican vote of over 80,000. Gardner is opposed by Lieutenant Governor David I. Walsh, Democrat, and Charles S. Bird, Progressive. The gubernatorial campaign in Massachusetts is likely to attract national attention.

OPERATION SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL

LODGE OUT OF DANGER

Physicians of Opinion That Massachusetts Senator Will Recover.

Lynn, Mass., Sept. 30.—United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge is very ill at his home in Nahant, although a statement by his physicians declares that he is practically out of danger after having been operated on last Friday, and that unless complications set in he will recover. It is not probable that it will be months before he again takes up active work in Washington. The senator returned to his home a week ago, and at once Dr. Frederick Winslow, the family physician, was called. It was decided to operate for a small perforation of the stomach, and Dr. Winslow summoned from Boston Dr. Harrington to perform the operation. The operation was successful, and Mr. Lodge stood it remarkably well.

WAR LOSS HEAVY

Sofia, Sept. 30.—Government returns show that 44,892 Bulgarians were killed in the two recent wars in the Balkans. Of this number 30,024 were killed in the war of the allies with Turkey and 14,863 in the war between Bulgaria and the Servians and Greeks. There were 104,586 Bulgarians wounded in the two wars and 7,824 are reported missing.

After Heavy Meals or When the Stomach Is Upset, These Little Capsules Surely Work Wonders

Mr. and Mrs. Nervous Dyspepsia—you who are afraid to eat this or that, constantly suffering from sour, bloated, upset stomach, that ingulfed, drowsy feeling after meals, no energy, no vitality—those ailments, everywhere, every day, are now finding how needless it is to have a bad stomach.

Go to your druggist and ask him to show you the formula, plainly printed on every package of Samuel's "Three-P"—that prescription after a famous French physician, containing only such ingredients as are used and endorsed by other physicians all over the world.

Take a capsule right now, if your stomach isn't right—feel that ease and comfort that will follow in a few minutes.

Besides, the best part about it is its harmlessness—just adding nature to digest the food and build up the nerves, so that you can eat what you want and feel fine all the time.

Good druggists everywhere sell Samuel's "Three-P" capsules, two sizes, 25c and 50c. Or order direct from The Samuel Chemical Company, Cincinnati, Ohio. Sold by

SAUER'S BAKERY

COST OF LIVING SHOWS INCREASE

Three Per Cent Jump In Prices During Past Year.

BEEF FROM SOUTH AMERICA

Bacon Shows Remarkable Advance of 128.5 Per Cent in Past Decade—Other Articles of Food, Meat Especially, Go Bounding Up—Statistics Submitted by Bureau of Labor.

Washington.—Bacon had advanced 128.5 per cent, pork chops 111 per cent and round steak 102.5 per cent on June 15 of this year, compared with the average prices for the ten year period ending with 1900, according to startling tables made public by the bureau of labor statistics.

The figures show that retail prices of food in general were 59.2 per cent higher on the date mentioned than for the ten year period in question, while they are 3.3 per cent above the price of June 15, 1912, and 14.4 above the average of June 15, 1911.

Sugar is a shining light, with a decline in price of 8 per cent from the ten year average, but this ray of sunshine is snowed under when consumers are told that smoked ham shows an increase in price of 84 per cent, hams 76.8 per cent, sirloin steak 75.2 per cent, rib roast 75 per cent, lard 68.5 per cent, cornmeal 57.3 per cent, potatoes 44.4 per cent, butter 41.3 per cent, eggs 40.8 per cent, milk 38.4 per cent and flour 28.6 per cent.

When the price of each of the fifteen articles included in the bulletin is considered according to the average consumption in workingmen's families, retail prices are shown to have been at a higher level on June 15 of this year than at any other time during the last twenty-three and a half years, with the single exception of Nov. 15, 1912, when the level was slightly higher.

Actual prices were obtained in forty cities, including New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco, Buffalo, Newark and New Orleans, belting the country both ways.

While the average increase in the cost of living at retail grocery stores on June 15, 1913, as compared with June 15, 1912, is placed at only 3.3 per cent, the increase in many articles is much higher. Bacon is in first place in this comparison, the price in 1913 being 16.2 per cent higher than in 1912. Smoked ham is second, showing an increase of 14.1 per cent for the year, while pork chops occupy third place, with an increase of 13.4 per cent.

Hens advanced 11.8 per cent; eggs, 11.7 per cent; round steak, 10.1 per cent; sirloin steak, 9.8 per cent; lard, 7.2 per cent; rib roast, 6.8 per cent; butter, 5.8 per cent, and milk, 4.1 per cent.

South America is sending greatly increased shipments of beef to the United States, and the importation of this product now has become a factor in the import trade. Between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 pounds of fresh beef, part from Argentina, have entered the ports of the United States in the last three months. A large portion of the beef is coming from Australia.

Officials of the department of commerce predicted that the imports of fresh beef from these countries in the present fiscal year will exceed 8,000,000 pounds.

Two Dead From Falls.

Bryan, O., Sept. 30.—A. P. Cory, 82, fell 16 feet from a ladder and died 30 minutes after from hemorrhages of the lungs. While straining wires from the municipal light plant, near where Cory fell, Warren M. Schatzler, 50, fell from a tree and suffered a fractured skull. He died three hours later.

TO OPEN STORE IN GREENFIELD

Leo Katz Secures Ten-Year Lease on Handsome Block in Heart of Greenfield's Business District and Will Soon Open Modern Clothing Establishment There, Adding Fifth Store to Chain Established in Central Ohio—Is Also Making Some Big Changes in Local Store.

Mr. Leo Katz, the progressive clothier of this city who has been attracting more than passing attention by rapid growth in the clothing business in this and adjoining cities, has added another store to his ever-growing chain of stores in central Ohio.

The new store is to be located in the heart of the business district in Greenfield, and the lease covers a period of ten years. The block to be occupied by the Katz store is 315 West Jefferson street, owned by J. K. Binder, and occupied at present by the Berger store. It is immediately opposite the city building and the location in every way is regarded as ideal.

The deal was closed up Tuesday morning and the rooms will be vacated within the next two weeks and Mr. Katz will commence the work of making changes immediately so that the store may be opened as soon as possible.

The rooms to be occupied by the Katz store are 100 feet deep and 20 feet wide, with a very attractive front. Both the first and second floors will be utilized, and will be handsomely furnished. Mr. Katz is already ordering new goods for the store.

This is the fifth store established by Mr. Katz in neighboring cities, the first outside of the local store being that of Colwell & Katz, at Circleville; the next was the Katz Brothers store at Elgin; then came the big store at Wilmington, known as Katz & Boncutter, with the fifth at Greenfield, the firm name of which has not yet been made public.

And while he is opening new stores in other towns, Mr. Katz is also making some big changes in the local store, and within the next few days the office will be removed to the third floor and the space it now occupies will be filled with goods. The change carrier system is undergoing changes so that each clerk will be near a "station" and change will be made rapidly, the cash girl occupying an upstairs office.

The large, inviting rest room on the third floor will soon be ready to be thrown open to the public. Other changes are also under way which will add to the convenience of the public.

A Tip to Draftsmen That May Save Time and Trouble.

Every draftsman has had occasion at one time or another to color a drawing or a white print. The use of colored inks is unsatisfactory; crosshatching in colors obscures the details and is slow, while water colors have the disadvantage of slowness, besides being difficult to apply evenly.

A quick and satisfactory method of coloring involves the use of ordinary wax crayons and gasoline. Crayon of the color desired is applied and then rubbed with a piece of cloth wet with gasoline until the color is even and extended to the limits desired. If it overruns the lines it can be erased with a pencil eraser. Some colors, particularly the yellows, purples, greens and light blues, produce much better results than others.

It is probable that the gasoline dissolves the wax from the crayon, leaving the pigment as an impalpable powder, which when rubbed over the paper colors it uniformly. The method is applicable with equal success to eggshell and smooth drawing papers and to white prints on both paper and cloth—Engineering and Mining Journal.

JOHN IRELAND, 75, IN STURDY TRIM

Prelate Has Figured In Many Big Controversies.

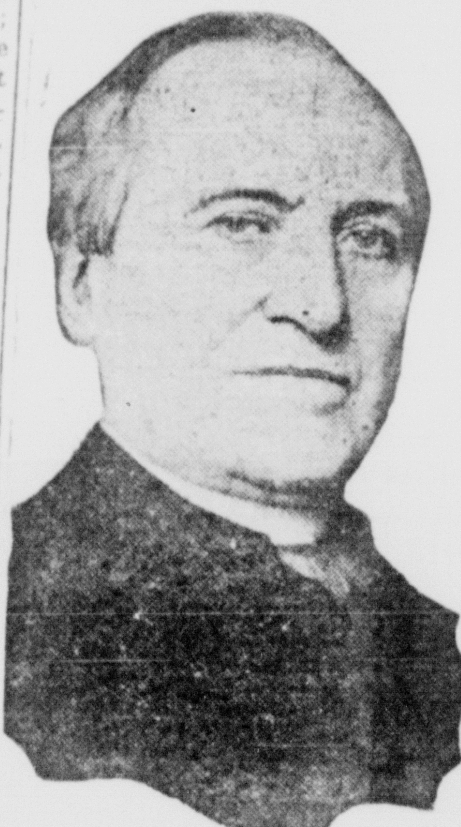

HIS DOCTRINES ON CHURCH

Activities Have Not Been Confined to Church Work, but He Has Striven to Better Conditions in All Walks of Life—He is an Opponent of the Saloon—Was Chaplain During War.

St. Paul, Minn.—Archbishop John Ireland is seventy-five years old. He celebrated his birthday recently in a simple fashion. He has had a long career in the Catholic church in America, and his positive nature has got him into many national and international controversies, some entirely religious, others touched with politics. He has been called "the brainiest man in the church outside of Rome."

For more than forty years he has been engaged in some intellectual struggle or another, now proclaiming the tenets of the Republican party and lashing its enemies, again defending the popes as popes or defending before the highest tribunals at Rome his ideas of church government in America and the relations of church and state. No field of intellectual, political or spiritual endeavor has escaped his pen or tongue. From the pulpit of his cathedral in St. Paul he has attacked alike the enemies of his church and his own enemies in the church.

He declared once: "There must always be among men an unequal distribution of the possessions of the earth, and the rights of property are sacred and cannot be violated. They who wrest to themselves the property of others are robbers and, together with other violators of the divine law, are excluded from the kingdom of heaven."

John Ireland was born in Ireland. The name, uncommon in these days, is an old one in Irish history. Kilkenny is the place of his birth. He came to this country with his parents in 1849. Eventually the Irelands made the state of Minnesota their home. Very early in life he showed a desire to become a churchman. After an elementary education in the schools of Minnesota he was sent to France, where he studied the classics and theology. Returning to this country, he was raised to the priesthood in 1862 by the Right Rev. Thomas L. Grace, then bishop of St. Paul.

At the beginning of the civil war he was sent as chaplain to the Fifth regiment of the Minnesota volunteers. Later he became, in turn, pastor of the cathedral at St. Paul, coadjutor bishop of that diocese and, on the death of Bishop Grace, the actual ruler. The church in the far west grew stronger under his administration, and eventually St. Paul was made an archdiocese with Ireland as its archbishop. His fame as an orator and publicist was widely known at this time.

A temperance advocate, the archbishop has given little or no quarter to the saloons or saloon keepers. The saloon became a leading question in the Catholic church in this country when Ireland was a young priest. In 1884 it was to the front again, following a fierce onslaught by Bishop Watterson of Columbus, O. One of his strongest supporters was Ireland. Bishop Watterson withdrew his approval from every Catholic society that admitted saloon keepers to membership.

The archbishop was a member of the commission appointed in 1901 to settle labor disputes. He has lived to see his ideas concerning the church and state in this country approved not only by the Catholic body in this country, but after a long struggle by the authorities at Rome. One of the most recent utterances on the subject of Americanism was pronounced in a speech at the last convention of the Federation of Catholic Societies.

"In America," he said, "the government is the republic, the government of the people by the people and for the people."

TERMINAL IS ESTABLISHED IN THIS CITY

Order Issued by Supt. Scoville Is Now in Effect and Many Freight Crews Lay Over Here While Some Fifteen Crews Change Trains at This Point—Heavy Demands Made on Capacity of B. & O. Restaurant.

The orders recently issued by Division Supt. E. R. Scoville of the B. & O. S. W., and temporarily revoked by the head officials of the road, are now in effect and this city is the freight terminal between Cincinnati and Newark, and upward of 15 crews now change trains at this point, five of the crews being "dead" here, or remaining over between trains.

The order became effective Monday and the B. & O. has been a busy place since that time, with many men lounging about between trains and practically all freight crews changing at this point.

The joint yard engine, to do the switching for both the B. & O. and C. H. & D. at this point, was placed in commission as part of the orders creating the terminal here.

C. A. Briggs, proprietor of the B. & O. restaurant—an ever popular eating place for railroad men—has announced that the restaurant will be kept open all night in the future, and this will afford an opportunity for the railroad men to secure their meals near the station at all hours.

The B. & O. station and yards have taken on a much more thriving aspect owing to the number of trains stopping and the crews changing at this point.

Within a short time part of the men will probably be looking for houses with the intention of moving their families to this city where the men themselves must remain.

6,000,000 IN COALITION PLAN.

Two Big Fraternal Associations May Amalgamate, It Is Reported.

Chicago.—Steps toward the amalgamation of the National Fraternal Congress and the Associated Fraternities of America were recently taken by 300 delegates representing the two organizations in separate conventions in Chicago. The membership of the societies represented is more than 6,000,000 and the combined insurance more than $8,000,000,000.

Economy in management and greater efficiency are desired. The Modern Woodmen, Woodmen of the World and Royal Arcanum are among the orders in the organization.

GOOD BOYS WELL REWARDED.

Get Farms For Not Drinking and Smoking For Ten Years.

Sioux City, Ia.—Ten years ago Ray and Jay Garnett, brothers, of Sioux City, pledged their word to their uncle, William E. Garnett, that they would not smoke, chew or drink intoxicating liquors until they reached their majority. The uncle promised a gift of importance in case they fulfilled their contract.

The period named in their promise has ended, and to hold up his share of the bargain William E. Garnett deeded to the brothers a half section of valuable land in Cass county, Minn., share and share alike.

TEN TONS OF PLAYING CARDS.

Shipments of Nearly 100,000 Packs Go to the Orient.

Seattle, Wash.—Ten tons of playing cards, approximately 90,000 decks, were among the shipments taken aboard the Japanese steamship Tambo Maru of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, loaded here for ports in the orient. The cards arrived from the east by train a few days ago. They are for Macao, China, the Monte Carlo of the orient, situated forty miles from the island of Hongkong on the mainland, near the mouth of the Pearl or Canton river.

EXPECT INCREASE IN PRICE OF COAL

Tax In Pennsylvania May Affect Entire Country.

New York.—Although the retail prices of anthracite coal may be increased 10 cents a ton on account of the new Pennsylvania state tax on the product, there is practically no chance of a raise before the first of next year, said dealers in this city.

The Pennsylvania legislature imposed a tax of 2 1/2 per cent on the value of all anthracite at the mines, expecting that it would bring $3,000,000 or $4,000,000 into the treasury of the state.

Political economists agree that it is the consumer who pays the tax. The fear has been that in addition to being to do this the retail coal dealer might utilize the new tax as an excuse for jacking up the prices on the consumer away above those actually warranted by the state levy. The tax of 2 1/2 per cent on the value of the coal at the mines would actually amount to about 5 cents a ton of the smallest or steam making coal and from 8 to 10 cents a ton on the larger or domestic sizes, such as chestnut, stove and egg.

"Celestial" as Applied to China.

Every one knows the epithet "Celestial" applied to China, but few know its origin. According to a very old legend, Tibet is a fragment of a planet, once peopled by a yellow race, which in some way became detached and fell on the earth. The dazed inhabitants of the fragment were uninjured and, cold and hungry, they made their way toward China, which they peopled. This origin of the Chinese race led to their calling themselves "Celestials," and it is for this reason that the emperor calls himself Son of Heaven. Such, at least, is the legend. —Toronto Globe.

Have you a "little furnace" in your stove?

YES!—if it's an Estate Hot Storm. Otherwise—no! For the wonderful little furnace is an exclusive and patented feature of the Estate Hot Storm's construction.

While the stove is working overtime, radiating its heat upward, and downward, and every which way, the little furnace inside is shooting an enormous volume of pure hot air into the room.

Hardly seems possible for a stove to do so much work as the

does—and to do it so nicely, without any smoke or gas getting into the room, without any puffing or exploding, without requiring any attention whatever except to put in some coal every day or two.

Make up your mind to "Own an Estate" this season, and make it an Estate Hot Storm—"the stove with a little furnace in it." See it here at our store.

RIVAL LEADERS FOR WORLD'S TITLE

Mack and McGraw Are Rare Judges of Playing Ability.

CONNIE ONCE GREAT CATCHER

Philadelphia Boss Is a Cool, Collected Man, While New Yorker Has Fiery Temper—Latter Continually Planning New Plays—Mack, Like Chance Avoids the Coaching Lines.

The leaders of the opposing teams in the forthcoming world's championship games are probably the two best known green diamond field marshals in the country.

Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics is of the cool, calculating type, while Johnny McGraw of the New York Nationals is a quick, snappy person, who has been ordered off the diamond so many times by umpires that he has forgotten to keep a record of them.

Mack caught for the Pirates from 1890 to 1896 and was the captain of the club for two years. The Athletics were members of the American league for the first time in 1901, but it was not until the next year that they won the pennant. They captured another flag under Mack's direction in 1905.

Plank and Bender, Veteran Pitchers, Are Chief Box Mainstays of the Athletics

Philadelphia, Sept. 30.—Plank and Bender, box specialists, are to be the headliners for Connie Mack in his contribution to the Mack-McGraw big show, "Pounding the Pill For the World's Championship." These two veterans are the mainstays in the pitching line for the Athletics, and the brunt of the twirling will fall upon their seasoned shoulders. It has been said that the Athletics are weaker in good pitchers than the Giants, and this seems to be conceded by most fans. But Mack has two able but the Giants beat them in the world's series. In 1911 they won another championship and the world's title for the first time. Mack is anxious to capture one more, and when he will consider that he has captured his share of baseball laurels and retire.

Connie's proper name is Cornelius MacGillivuddy, but when he first broke into the big leagues the writers started calling him Connie Mack for short, and it has stuck to him so that the average fan thinks that it is his right name. He was born in East Brookfield, Mass.

The secret of Mack's success has been his ability to recognize ball players in the rough. He seldom has sought to corner stars, but has been content to secure unheard of players for small prices or generally no purchase price at all and teach them all of the fine points of the game.

There are few people who have ever seen Mack on the diamond in the past ten years. When he goes out to the grounds he stealthily winds his way to the players' bench, hides himself in a corner and never leaves the spot until the game is over. He is unlike McGraw, Jennings or any other manager, inasmuch as he never even goes down to the coaching lines, thus following Frank Chance's style.

It has often been asked as to what one would attribute John McGraw's success as a baseball manager. In the first place, his method of handling players conduces to getting the best possible results out of them. All players cannot be treated in the same manner. One man has to be patted upon the back, while another needs a sharp reprimand to make him put forth his best efforts or remedy his faults.

McGraw has the supreme tact to employ these opposite methods in the way that causes no friction with the team, with the result that all the men pull together for the success of the club.

Another great factor in McGraw's success is his knowledge of inside baseball. He is constantly planning to pull off the unexpected, and in the execution of his plans he always takes into consideration the abilities of the players called upon to carry out his and astute pitchers of long experience and still possessing great ability in Plank and Bender. Eddie Plank has been with the team for twelve years. He has never played with any other big league team, and it is probable that he never will, for he is now 38 years old. Charlie Bender has been with the team for ten years, his berth being the only big league place he has ever occupied. These two have been the shining stars of past world's series for the Mackmen, and it is safe to say they will shine again this year.

scheme of play. In the selection and retention of players McGraw's judgment is rarely at fault. When he became manager of the Giants one of his first acts was to release ten or twelve players. People who thought they knew declared he was letting some good material slip through his fingers, but only one man in the lot has retained a major league berth.

The trade by which New York acquired Tenney and Bridwell was much criticized, but the result has justified McGraw's judgment. McGraw has the nerve to stand by his own judgment, and this was never better exemplified than when Larry Doyle made good at second base. McGraw had faith in Doyle from the beginning of his first spring practice and was deaf to the general criticism that he was making a mistake.

John J. McGraw was born in Truxton, N. Y. He was always devoted to baseball, and in his early youth he was engaged to go to various towns to fill up gaps in semiprofessional clubs. Then he was regularly signed by the Bay City (Mich.) team.

Keeps Your Stove Always Ready for Company

A bright, clean, glossy stove is a pride of every housewife. It is hard to keep a stove in good condition unless Black Silk Stove Polish is used.

Here is the reason: Black Silk Stove Polish sticks right to the iron. It rubs off or dusts off. Its shine lasts times longer than the shine of any polish. You only need to polish fourth as often, yet your stove is cleaner, brighter and better looking. It has been since you first bought it.

BLACK SILK STOVE POLISH

on your parlor stove, kitchen stove or gas fuel can from your hardware or stove dealer. If you do not find it better than any other polish you have ever used before, your dealer is authorized to refund your money. But we are sure you will agree with the thousands of up-to-date women who are now using Black Silk Stove Polish and who say it is the best stove polish ever made.

LIQUID OR PASTE ONE QUALITY

Be sure to get the genuine Black Silk Stove Polish. It costs you no more than the ordinary. Keep your grates, registers, tenders and pipes bright and free from rusting by using BLACK SILK AIR-DRYING ENAMEL. Buy it with each can of enamel only.

Use BLACK SILK METAL POLISH on nickel, tinware or brass. It works easily, and leaves a brilliant surface. It is equal for use on automobiles.

NEW YORK NATIONALS

HOW RECEIPTS AND ATTENDANCE AT TITLE GAMES HAVE INCREASED.

The amazing growth of the popularity of baseball is strikingly shown by the increase in attendance and in gate receipts from year to year at the world's series contests.

In 1884, when the first world's championship contest was played between the Providence team of the National league and the Metropolitans, winners of the American association pennant, the attendance was 2,000.

The receipts were about $1,500. The game was played on the old Polo grounds in New York city.

In 1905 the total attendance at the five championship games was 91,723.

In 1906, when the Chicago White Sox won the title from the Chicago Cubs, the receipts jumped to over $100,000.

In 1909 the gate receipts at the Pittsburgh-Detroit series were $188,362.50, the attendance 145,295.

In 1910, at the Athletics-Chicago series, the attendance was 124,222, the receipts $173,980.

The Athletics-New York contests for 1911 drew 179,851 persons and $342,164.

Last year the New York-Boston contests attracted 251,001 people, and the gate receipts were the enormous sum of $490,449.
